

Jesús Torres

Senior Accountant Baker Tilly

Jesús Torres was born in San Juan, Puerto Rico. He is a young professional who attended Penn State University and obtained a degree in Accounting and minored in Business Law, with a concentration in Finance. Jesús moved to North Huntingdon in January 2014 with his wife, who is a Pittsburgh native. He is a Senior Accountant at Baker Tilly's Assurance department. Jesús' industry emphasis: Nonprofits, higher education, Uniform Guidelines compliance, privately held companies, senior living clients. He is part of Baker Tilly's Supporting Opportunity, Advancement, and Recognition for all (SOAR) committee with the vision of supporting the evolution of a diverse, inclusive workforce with opportunity for all team members to maximize their potential, create value and deliver to clients as a nationally recognized firm. In addition, Jesús is the treasurer of the Pittsburgh Metropolitan Area Hispanic Chamber of Commerce and part of the "Next Generation Council" formed by Vibrant Pittsburgh. Lastly, he was an active volunteer partner in the public-private "Hola Pittsburgh!" and part of the Welcoming Pittsburgh Advisory Council formed by Mayor Peduto.

